Fine wines to please Elves, Dwarves and Men

W. Blake Gray, Chronicle Staff Writer

"But have you the Zinfandel?" Pippin asked. "That is a legendary wine even in our land, being from the first grape brought to Middle Earth."

"You choose wisely, young sir," said a tall Man with an elvish grin. "Grapes of greater name have come from Numenor, yet the Zinfandel endures."

The Man poured 2003 R & B Cellars California Zinfandel ($10) for Pippin, who sipped it and cried, "Why, it's a delight! The fruit is very sweet and ripe, putting me in mind of fresh blackberries sprinkled with a dash of black pepper."
